Dear Sir/Madam,

I'm a self-employed Information Architect / User Experience Designer seeking contract or full-time employment.

I have an international reputation for designing enterprise applications and web-portals for some of the worlds leading technology companies.

I'm passionate about providing on-line "user experiences" that are are simple to use, visually appealing and optimised for usability.

Examples of my work can be found at: www.theiconstudio.com
I've also attached my CV/Resume for your consideration.

Yours sincerely,

Alan Trow-Poole
